Discover

Escape the bustle of everyday life and discover a secluded space surrounded by trees located in the heart of the Capital with stunning views across Canberra city, Lake Burley Griffin and mountain ranges.

The National Arboretum Canberra is a unique venue that features 94 forests of rare, endangered and symbolic trees from around Australia and the world, this also includes two forests that are over 100 hundred years old.

The National Arboretum Canberra offers a plethora of opportunities for commercial and community-centric events. This includes the Amphitheatre, Event Terrace, Village Centre, Margaret Whitlam Pavilion and forests. These diverse choices make National Arboretum Canberra flexible and accommodating for large and small scale events that can use multiple venues at once.

The Amphitheatre & Events Terrace

The Amphitheatre is like no other venue in Canberra. Enjoy live entertainment from all angles with the Amphitheatre's u-shaped space.

Create a bespoke outdoor experience for guests to enjoy a night under the stars or a warm afternoon surrounded by forests and nature.

The Events Terrace wraps around the Amphitheatre making it an ideal location for food, drink and facility marquees. Also suitable for alfresco dining experiences.
